Back to Belize in 2014!

My wife Eileen and I hosted a trip to Ambergris Caye in Belize in April of 2013, and it was a huge success. We had eight people along with us and they all had a terrific time. The Belizean Shores was an excellent place to stay, and the folks at Go Fish Belize provided everyone exciting times on the water.

Every morning the guide boats met us right at the dock in front of our hotel, and away we would go. We all caught bonefish and snapper with either fly or spinning rods. Many of us had permit fishing that was hard to believe. Our guide was a real specialist and my fishing partner and I even had doubles on permit—unheard of!

This year we will be staying at the same fabulous resort, the Belizean Shore, and using the same guide service that I have been using for years, Go Fish Belize. This family owned and operated guide service has always treated my like a special guest and they did the same for all of the people that came along on our last trip.

I have chosen a time of year that offers the best opportunity for catching bonefish, permit and even tarpon, so plan on lots of action when you are on the water. I have also planned lots free time for people to explore the island or just relax around the pool.

Last year the trip filled up very quickly, so if you want experience the fun and fishing of going to Belize contact Journey Travel and Tours right away!
